EVVA Xesar Tablet

Description

The Xesar tablet is used to update all of the components of the system as they don't have to be hard wired together into a single control unit. Simply update the main system, synchronise the tablet and then connect to each device to download the updated information and any firmware updates.

It has an Android operating system and is supplied with the software pre-installed, a mains adapter and USB connection cable.

Works With An App

Features

- Access components are synchronised with the software using the Xesar tablet

- Office modes or new time profiles are distributed to doors using the tablet

- The Xesar tablet updates the firmware when new releases are deployed

- Android operating system

- USB connection cable

- Supplied complete with installed software, USB cable and mains adapter

Product Table

L24864

Android